Sitting pretty

THE boss of fit-out and refurbishment business Claremont Group Interiors said the company has a healthy order book for 2010 after winning over £3m of contracts in the last month.

The Warrington firm's acceptance as a North West NHS Trust approved contractor won them a contract with Knowsley PCT. It has also secured contracts with investment bank Altium and information management company Convergys.

Claremont reported a turnover of £24.5m for the 12 months to March 31.

Managing director Mike Gardner said: "We have got a good order book and client base so are in a good position to be competitive."
